HISTORY OF ROSS GROVE BAPTIST CHURCH

Ross Grove Baptist Church came out of a revival in August of 1878 held in a brush arbor. A Sunday School was begun in a log barn and later moved to the Ross Grove School. In 1880, fifteen acres of land was donated for a Sunday School building. A building was constructed in 1881. Later that year a church was organized with Rev. Robin Poston as the first pastor.

Another building was constructed in 1905, and then remodeled in 1943. In 1969 the present educational building was completed on a new site on Fallston Road. The present sanctuary was completed and dedicated in October 19, 1986. This last phase was completed debt free!

Since 1881 the church has experienced the leadership of many devoted servants and presently is seeking directions from past experiences and present realities to go into the century ahead reaching our own community and a lost world for our Savior!

Rev. Gene Daggerhart has served as pastor since June 1993. Mrs. Maggie Hutchinson serves as music director. The current membership is 215.

HISTORY OF ELIZABETH BAPTIST CHURCH

Elizabeth Baptist Church began as the dream of Elizabeth Love Wilson as she brought her cow to graze on the land where the church now stands. Often she was joined by Mary Jane Borders Mauney, and these two saints prayed for a church to combat the evil influence of a nearby liquor store and to provide a local place of worship. Early in 1883, God sent C.F. Felment to lead the community in a brush-arbor revival. As a result, a church and Sunday School were organized. In September, Elizabeth Baptist Church was accepted into the Kings Mountain Baptist Association.

The next year a little wooden church was built on land provided by Elizabeth Love Wilson. The white frame building was heated by a pot-bellied stove, lighted by kerosene lamps, and divided into Sunday School rooms by curtains. A yellow brick church replaced the wooden structure in 1910. This forty-by-sixty foot building had three separate Sunday School rooms. Like the wooden church it replaced, it too, had a large stove in the middle and curtains to separate classes. During its use, the kerosene lamps were replaced by electric lights. In 1940, the yellow brick church was replaced by a third building which had a sanctuary capacity of five hundred people, an inside baptistry, and facilities for six separate Sunday School departments. On December 13, 1954, flames completely engulfed this red brick church and left Elizabeth Baptist Church without a building. The church, using Elizabeth School as its meeting place, continued to minister, to pray, and to plan as it rebuilt on the same site on which Elizabeth Love Wilson had prayed so long before.

On February 24, 1957, services were held by the church in its fourth and present building. An adjoining building containing additional Sunday School rooms, a kitchen, and fellowship hall was entered in 1970, and a separate recreational facility was completed in 1982. From this complex, Elizabeth Baptist Church through God's leadership continues to minister and to affect the lives of people in Cleveland County and to the uttermost parts of the earth.

Rev. Jeff Brendle serves as pastor, Rev. Mike McGee as minister of music, Mr. Joe Collins as minister of education, and Rev. Scott Norton as minister of youth senior adults. The current membership is 1153.

2. Special music was presented by BONDED, a group of three Gardner-Webb University students - Jay Pass, Amanda Crouse and Allison Bowman. Their selections included: "He Is Here," "Holy Ground," "Lord Somebody Needs You," and "There Is A River."
3. Mrs. Maggie Hutchinson, music director from Ross Grove, led the congregation in singing, "Brethren We Have Met To Worship." Accompanists were: Mrs. Ellen Fitzgerald, organist and Mrs. Sherri Daggerhart, pianist, both from Ross Grove Church.
4. Rev. J.R. Robbins, pastor of Faith Church, read scripture from Isaiah 6:1-8. Our theme for the evening, "Hearing the Call," was interpreted by Mr. Jeremy Kerr and Miss Carrie Cranford. They were assisted by Rev. Leland Kerr. The opening prayer was led by Mr. Jimmy Black, youth children director at Oak Grove Church.
5. Host pastor, Rev. Gene Daggerhart, welcomed everyone to Ross Grove and expressed gratitude to his church members for assisting in all the preparations for the meeting.
6. Rev. Leland Kerr, executive director of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association, extended a warm welcome to our new ministers and staff who have joined our association since our last annual meeting. These included: Mrs. Karen Davis, youth children director, from Zoar Church; Rev. J.R. Robbins, pastor, from Faith Church; Mr. Greg Martin, associate pastor and education director, from Macedonia Church; Mr. Jimmy Black, youth children director, from Oak Grove Church; and Mr. John Wooten, music director, from Emmanuel Church.
7. Dr. Bill Jordan, pastor of Fallston Church and chairman of the Order of Business Committee, moved the adoption of the printed program. The motion was seconded and approved by the messengers. He thanked Ross Grove Church and Elizabeth Church for serving as host churches for 1996. He asked ushers to collect attendance cards at this time.
8. Mr. Fred Flowers, lay member of First Church Shelby and member of the Constitution Committee, presented proposed changes to our Constitution and By-Laws. These changes will be voted on at the Tuesday afternoon session by messengers from our churches.
9. Moderator Causby recognized Rev. Leland Kerr to present his challenge to the association.

As part of his challenge, Rev. Kerr first recognized Rev. John Bridges, pastor of First Church Grover and chairman of the Counseling Ministry Study Committee. Rev. Bridges stated his committee was appointed in April 1996 to study the feasibility of a counseling ministry in our association. He asked that a questionnaire be distributed, filled out and returned to him at the end of tonight's session. This will aid the committee in their work.

Next, Rev. Kerr recognized Rev. Keith Dixon, pastor of Flint Hill Church and chairman of the Missions Committee. Rev. Dixon presented his report from the Missions Committee. He called attention to our association's call to missions through our local work with the Hispanic mission, New York and South Africa partnerships as well as our future mission work through the proposed Kings Mountain Baptist Association Missions Foundation Fund for consideration later on the program tonight.

Rev. Kerr recognized and expressed gratitude to our association officers and staff members. He asked all officers, committee members, and volunteers to stand.

Rev. Kerr called attention to his printed report and spoke briefly on "The Call of God" stating we are called to a relationship with God, we are called to missions and must sacrifice, surrender and be servants. We will settle for the "experience" of "Experiencing God" but never let it change our lives. The time is now for churches to share resources with struggling churches and unite to reach the lost in our county. We as Christians should ask, "Lord, what are you telling me to do?" He read scripture from our theme passage Mark 1:16-17.

10. Rev. Larry King, associate pastor and minister of music education youth from Westview Church, led the congregation in singing, "Footsteps of Jesus."
11. Ms. Recca Bingham, clerk treasurer and lay member from Elizabeth Church, called attention to the Executive Board report. She also presented the treasurer's report and moved it be adopted. The motion was seconded by Rev. John Bridges and approved by the messengers.

Ms. Bingham also read a recommendation from the Executive Committee and Missions Committee regarding the formation of Kings Mountain Baptist Association Missions Foundation Fund. She made a motion the recommendation be adopted and it was approved by the messengers. This recommendation is printed in full in another location in this book.

12. Moderator Causby introduced Dr. Chris White, president of Gardner-Webb University, to present a report from the university as well as present our annual sermon. Dr. White has served as president at GWU for the past ten years.
13. Our special music for the evening was presented by BONDED. Their selection was "Had It Not Been."
14. Dr. Chris White brought greetings from all the Baptist colleges and universities across our state and in particular, Gardner-Webb University. Dr. White stated he felt God called him to the university. He expressed appreciation for the work of a Baptist association and shared how he has participated in associational events as far back as Bible drills as a child. He shared the role Kings Mountain Baptist Association had in starting Gardner-Webb. The theme for his message was, "Where There Is No Vision, the People Perish." He shared this "vision" resulted in many changes over the years and brought Gardner-Webb to its current university status as well as the addition of the divinity school. Today Gardner-Webb has 2,700 students and committed Christians as faculty members. Gardner-Webb is the only Baptist school in our state with programs for blind and deaf students. Dr. White recognized Dr. Bob Lamb, dean of the divinity school, for his role in starting the divinity school. He expressed thanks to Kings Mountain Baptist Association churches for their prayers, support, and confidence given to the school as well as for sending students their way.
15. Vice-Moderator Keith Dixon pronounced the benediction.

Tuesday Afternoon
October 29, 1996

16. As messengers and visitors gathered at Elizabeth Baptist Church at 2:45 PM for the second session of our annual meeting, special music was presented by the Keenager Choir of Elizabeth Church under the direction of Mr. Mike McGee, minister of music for Elizabeth. Mrs. Jean Mauney, a member of Elizabeth, accompanied on the piano.
17. Rev. Jeff Brendle, pastor of our host church, extended a welcome to everyone and thanked all who had prayed for him this past year during his liver transplant and his recovery process. Mr. Mike McGee led the congregation in singing, "Since Jesus Came Into My Heart." Scripture was read from Mark 8:34 and 11 Timothy 2:15 by Rev. Greg Martin, associate pastor and minister of education at Macedonia Baptist Church.
18. Mr. Jeremy Kerr and Miss Carrie Cranford presented a drama theme interpretation "Preparing For the Call."
19. The opening prayer was led by Rev. Greg Martin.
20. Moderator Mary Lou Causby asked that everyone fill out their attendance cards and these were collected by the ushers. She also thanked Ross Grove and Elizabeth for so graciously hosting our 1996 meeting.
21. Vice-moderator Keith Dixon, pastor of Flint Hill Baptist Church, gave the Calendar Committee report. He thanked everyone who worked to put the 1997 calendar together. No additional changes were noted by those in attendance. Rev. Dixon moved the adoption of the calendar. This was voted on and approved.
22. Rev. Alton Martin, pastor of Polkville Baptist Church and chairman of the Nominating Committee, gave the Nominating Committee report. He mentioned that the position as the Children's Homes representative was still vacant and he asked for a volunteer. There were no additional nominations from the floor. This report was voted on and approved.
23. The Committee on Committee report was presented by Rev. Claude McIntosh, pastor of David Baptist Church. He thanked the churches for their spirit of cooperation in putting this report together. Rev. McIntosh recommended this be adopted. It was voted on and approved.
24. Rev. Dan Silver, retired pastor and chairman of the Memorials Committee gave his report. We had a short time of prayer for those who have gone to meet God during this past year. We lost 315 lay people and 3 pastors. The three pastors being: Rev. Ernest Smith, Rev. James Sanders and Rev. Youlon Owens.
25. Retired Director of Missions Cline Borders gave a report from the Annuity Board in which he encouraged us to "adopt an annuitant." He stated that we have some retired pastors in our association who are receiving less than $200 per month in retirement.
26. Miss Susan Wilson, minister of music and education at Eastside Church in Shelby, led us in singing, "Redeemed, How I Love To Proclaim It."
27. Mr. Fred Flowers read the six constitutional changes again that were presented at Monday night's meeting. He moved that these changes be approved. Being no discussion, Moderator Mary Lou Causby called for a standing vote. This was unanimously approved. These changes can be found elsewhere in this volume.
28. The proposed budget was presented by Mr. Jim Hope, chairman of the Finance Committee and a member of Polkville Baptist Church. This new budget represents a

- 4.3% increase over the 1996 budget. This was voted on and passed.
29. Mr. Lansford Jolley, chairman of the History Committee and member of Boiling Springs Baptist Church, gave the History Committee report. He stated that 53 of our churches have their history on microfilm at Gardner-Webb University library. He encouraged all churches to get organized so that they could get their history written in full. To help with this process, Mr. John Woodard, from the State Convention, will be in our association on January 21, 1997. Mr. Woodard will share with us recommendations on how to document your church history so that it may be put on microfilm.
 30. Rev. Al Tinnin, director of South Mountain Baptist Camp, shared about the growth that the camp is experiencing. This past summer there were 75 professions of faith among the campers. He attributed this growth to the fact that our world is so noisy that we have to go to a place like the camp in order to hear the "still small voice of God." He asked that we continue to support the camp by praying, sending our children and young people and by contributing financially.
 31. Special music was presented by 3 Part Joy. This singing group consists of Mrs. Teresa Davis, Miss Susan Wilson and Mrs. Shannon Hammond, all from Eastside Baptist Church in Shelby.
 32. Rev. Bonnie Doughtie, associational church development director, started her report with a recorded theme song written and sung by Mrs. Beth Heffner, minister of music, education and youth at Dover. Rev. Doughtie was assisted by Rev. Steve Zimmerman for Sunday School, Mrs. Priscilla Wray and Rhealene Lamb for WMU, Mrs. Faithe Beam for Music, Rev. Tom Beam for Student Ministries and Rev. Rick Hamrick for Youth. Each shared 1996 events and highlights for the individual department or committee and also shared future plans for 1997. These individual reports are found elsewhere in this volume. Rev. Doughtie challenged individuals and churches to get involved in any or all of these ministry opportunities.
 33. Executive director Leland Kerr asked if there were any in the congregation who would like to share testimony as to what the Lord is doing in their life and in their church. Many did share in this special time and the Spirit was felt by all. Then 3 Part Joy shared a challenge in song "The Call."
 34. Rev. Jeff Brendle then gave directions and thanks for our evening meal and we adjourned to the fellowship hall.

Tuesday Evening October 29, 1996

35. At 6:45 p.m. as messengers and visitors gathered for the evening session, special music was presented by Kings Mountain Baptist Associational Ministers of Music Choir under the direction of Mrs. Faithe Beam, associational music director and minister of music youth from Zion Church. Selections included: "He Is Here," "Praise You," and "Ye Shall Be Witnesses," Mrs. Angela Zimmerman served as the accompanist for the group.
36. Vice-Moderator Keith Dixon welcomed everyone to the evening session. He ex-

- pressed appreciation to the choir for the beautiful music, to Elizabeth Church for the meal and to all the volunteers who assisted at the association office with putting the Book of Reports and 1997 Calendar together. Rev. Dixon will moderate this session.

 38. Mr. Archie Mathis, business manager, First Church Shelby, read scripture from Matthew 28:19-20 and Acts 16:9-10. West, First Church Shelby; and Mrs. Jean Mauney, Elizabeth Church.
 41. Ms. Recca Bingham gave the attendance report. Monday's session: A total of 291 included 238 messengers, 53 non-messengers representing 51 churches. Tuesday's sessions: A total of 326 included 236 messengers and 90 non-messengers representing 58 churches and one mission. She expressed appreciation to visitors and Gardner-Webb students in attendance.
 42. Rev. Charles Reed presented the Church and Community Ministries challenge. He asked messengers to take the printed report back to their church and thanked everyone for their prayers and support of the ministries in CCM. Rev. Reed, and his assistant Teresa Davis, along with seven CCM volunteers reported on several ministries. The following volunteers shared how they had "responded to the call" to volunteer, their personal experiences and the duties they handle. Those sharing were:
 - Emergency and Relief: Mrs. Jackie Washburn
 - Clothing Room: Mrs. Jane Jolly
 - Chemical Dependency: Rev. Mickey Heyward
 - Toy Store: Mrs. Bess Hambidge
 - Share the Warmth: Mrs. Evelyn Jackson
 - AIDS: Mrs. Cindy Binion
 - Metrolina Food Bank: Mr. Fred Mauney and Mr. Gene Hoyle
 43. As Rev. Leland Kerr showed a slide presentation on people in need, 3 PART JOY sang "Not Too Far From Here." The message being that we can "Respond to the Call" to help those in need because they are not too far from us.
 44. Mr. Barry Coker, chairman of Evangelism Committee and layperson from Christopher Road Church, presented his report and expressed appreciation for the opportunity of serving the past three years on the Evangelism Committee. He reported how Promise Keepers had grown this year and the effect of the Billy Graham Crusade on our area. He stated how important mass evangelism is but that one-on-one can be even more effective. He encouraged everyone to go out and "share Jesus," continue their support to New York even after the partnership is over, support the Jay Strack Crusade in Kings Mountain next year, and pray for revival.

45. "Live From South Africa" was an informative and challenging part of our program. Rev. Kerr had a taped phone conversation between himself and Rev. Glenn Walker who was in Cape Town, South Africa with a mission team from our association. Rev. Walker shared about their experiences during their two week trip and shared how messengers may become involved in this five-year partnership with South Africa.
46. Vice-Moderator Keith Dixon introduced our moderator, Mrs. Mary Lou Causby to present her challenge to the messengers.
47. Rev. Bob Dills, minister of music from First Church Shelby, led the congregation in singing "Rise Up, O Men of God."
48. Kings Mountain Baptist Association Ministers of Music sang, "Here I Am, Lord" under the direction of Mrs. Faithe Beam.
49. Special music for the evening was presented by FIRST PRAISE under the direction of Rev. Bob Dills from First Church Shelby. They presented a beautiful a cappella selection of "With All My Heart."
50. Moderator Mary Lou Causby presented her challenge to messengers and visitors. She stated that at times we all need renewal in our lives. She made reference to our theme, "A Call To Follow" and how everyone had followed through with the theme. She asked us to look back to our own saving experience, bow prayerfully and think of someone who may have had a part in that experience. She talked about the purpose of the annual meeting and shared the opportunities she and her husband have had in lay mission work. She encouraged doing missions at home as well as foreign if we have the opportunity. She stated we cannot expect to open our church doors and have people flock to us. Instead, we must go out and reach them one-on-one. We must become more serious about reaching the lost for Jesus.
51. Moderator Causby asked the congregation to join with her in making a new commitment to the work of the Lord Jesus.
52. During commitment time, Mrs. Faithe Beam led the congregation in singing, "Lord, Here Am I."
53. Rev. Leland Kerr declared the 146th annual session adjourned and pronounced the benediction.

NOTE: Committee and organizational reports from these proceedings may be found elsewhere in this volume.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S REPORT

1995-96 has been a year filled with multiple opportunities for training, fellowship, ministry projects and missions involvement in our Association. I am at times overwhelmed by the needs that exist in our churches and our community while at the same time I am confident that our family of churches consistently accept the challenges to meet those needs. We must continue to strengthen our work as a family of churches in order to support one another, love one another and work with one another.

One of our most effective and visible examples of our churches working together is our effort in Partnership Missions. We have started our last year of partnership with the Greater Rochester Baptist Association, anticipating officially closing it out in our 1997 Annual Meeting. We will find out at this year's Baptist State Convention who North Carolina's new partnership state will be for 1997-2001. We will return to Rochester for two weeks next July 11-19 and 18-26. Our newest partnership is with the Western Province Baptist Association in Cape Town, South Africa. Rev. Glenn Walker, coordinator of this partnership, will lead a team of thirteen there October 17-31 this year. Bonnie Doughtie, Faithe Beam and Teresa Davis will lead a Women's Prayer Retreat there in February and I will lead a team March 14-28.

We are also missions partners on the local level. There has been an ongoing effort to find the best way to reach the growing Hispanic population in our county. The Star of Bethlehem Hispanic Baptist Mission worked for over five years to reach this group of people and has recently undergone a redirection of resources and leadership. In effect, we are re-starting our work with Hispanics under the leadership of Rev. Jose Espinales with a new congregation called the Christopher Road Baptist Hispanic Mission. Christopher Road Baptist Church will continue to host the Hispanic congregation and lend support. We are grateful to them for their generous spirit of sharing. I encourage you to pray for this new Hispanic work.

During this Annual Meeting, our messengers will be asked to act on a recommendation to establish the Kings Mountain Baptist Association Missions Foundation. This would enable us to raise funds designated for mission partnerships, language work, new church starts, and short-term assistance for our churches in times of crisis. This is another potential opportunity to enhance our ability to be partners in missions.

I am pleased that approximately thirty-five of our churches will participate in our World Missions Conference May 18-21, 1997. We will have foreign, home, and state missionaries speaking in all of the participating churches. This is another opportunity for our churches to learn about missions and how to be directly involved.

I want to encourage each church to consider increasing your financial support to the Association. You can see throughout this book of reports how actively involved our Association is in local, home and foreign missions. We will continue to provide opportunities for our churches to participate at all three levels. We are truly a missions entity with a world vision. Our Association adopted a goal some years ago to encourage our churches to contribute 5% of their receipts to Association Missions. How long has it been since your church increased its giving?

I want to congratulate our churches who were identified as part of the "Top 100 Churches - Cooperative Program Giving - 1995" in North Carolina:

- #6 Elizabeth Baptist
- #12 First Baptist, Shelby
- #50 Westview Baptist
- #57 Kings Mountain, First
- #78 Boiling Springs Baptist

As we continue to respond to the needs of our churches and our community, a Counseling Ministry Study Committee has been formed. You will have an opportunity during the Annual Meeting to express your opinion on the need for a Counseling Ministry through a questionnaire that will be given by John Bridges, the chairman.

A key ingredient to the success of our Association is VOLUNTEERS. We could not do all that we do without the faithful, sacrificial work of our volunteers. They contribute thousands of hours of work each year toward the ministry of our ASSOCIATION. Volunteers - we love you - we appreciate you - we depend on you!

As I approach five years of ministry with you I want you to know how blessed I am to be your Director of Missions. Your love for this Association, support of its work, and cooperative and caring spirit continue to minister to me personally. I am indeed filled with gratitude. The words of the Apostle Paul express my thoughts toward you:

"I thank my God every time I remember you. In all my prayers for all of you, I always pray with joy because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now, being confident of this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus" Philippians 1:3-6 (NIV).

May God continue to bless our "partnership in the gospel."

BECAUSE HE LIVES,
Leland Kerr

CHURCH DEVELOPMENT DIRECTOR REPORT

In Matthew 5:14-16, Jesus tells us "You're here to be light, bringing out the God-colors in the world...Now that I've put you there on a hilltop, on a light stand - shine!" We are to be light to our world. As we face the end of the 20th century and work toward the 21st century, we should strive to be light bearers to a dark world. We must shine as the church today and in the future.

God has called us and continues to call us to prepare to serve Him in a world that desperately needs to see the light. Training and preparation are a vital part of being ready to show the light to the world.

We can celebrate in Kings Mountain Baptist Association with the training opportunities that took place this past year. Many people took advantage of training and are better prepared for kingdom work.

The Sunday School theme (until the 21st century) is Carry the Light. Training in all age groups took place in outreach and preparation working toward the year 2000. We were blessed to have Harry Piland and Barry Campbell to come and lead us in our Sunday School rallies. The ASSIS Team (Associational Sunday School Improvement Support Team) is available to come to your church to help your leaders prepare to be more effective.

Through Sunday School, you can grow your church. "As the Sunday School goes, so goes the church" is very true. Your Sunday School attendance and enrollment affects the life of the total church. Get involved in growing your Sunday School and see growth in your church.

Discipleship Training offered the Bible Drill again this year. New churches were involved and children and youth have learned more about the Bible. Wendy Edwards came and provided a Discipleship Training Resource Fair. The many, many resources that are available in discipleship are displayed in our Curriculum Resource Center.

Vacation Bible School training helped churches prepare to Go for the Goal. The Olympic theme encouraged leaders to lead children and youth to learn more about Jesus.

The music ministry offered something new with the Senior Adult Music Festival. 240 senior adults from the association came together for a great time to learn music and fellowship. Another festival is planned for this coming year.

Ice and snow kept the Youth Ski Retreat from becoming a reality. But, plans are underway for the same program next year. RESCUE '96 provided a super time of worship for the youth in the county.

I am grateful to each organization leader and committee member that I work with in the association. Without YOU, my work would be harder. Together we can make a difference in planning, promoting and preparing people for kingdom work. Thanks to each member who works so hard.

Our partnership continues to grow in Rochester. The three weeks this summer were very effective and productive. God continues to bless our people in KMBA who are willing to go and serve in Rochester. Make plans to be a part of the mission trip next summer. The dates are July 11-19, 1997 and July 18-26, 1997.

The South African partnership is well underway. Teresa Davis (CCM Assistant), Faithe Beam (Associational Music Director), and I will be going February 20, 1997 to lead the South African ladies in a Ladies Spiritual Retreat. Pray for us as we prepare to go. Pray for our group there right now and the group Leland will lead in March. Pray for your involvement in this partnership.

Looking to the future, there are some exciting events planned.

The Singles Committee has planned a great event for November 15. The theme for the event is 2000: The Singles Challenge (Singles Taking Active Roles Spiritually). Look for the brochure elsewhere in the Book of Reports for more details. Encourage singles in your church to be a part of this event.

The Youth Committee is planning a fantastic back to school event for September 6, 1997. Fun, fellowship, a concert and worship will be a part of this exciting event.

Challenging People to Renew (CPR) is planned for August 31 - September 1, 1998. This is two years away, but make plans to be involved.

Kennon Callahan asks the question, "Are your best years behind you or ahead of you?" I believe with all of my heart that the best years for Kings Mountain Baptist Association are ahead of us.

Let's celebrate what we have been able to do with the Lord's leadership. But, let's celebrate what is ahead. God has great plans for us. Will you be involved?

Thanks for the opportunity to serve with you. Celebrating together, let's allow His light to shine in and through us.

Let's shine together,
Bonnie Doughtie

EXECUTIVE BOARD REPORT

April 22 at New Hope:

1. A recommendation was made and approved that the Association establish a Missionaries-in-Residence Committee to work with Gardner-Webb University, the Association and the churches who furnish missionary homes to work out plans as to when and to whom the residences would be available. There have been numerous requests from various missionaries who are seeking opportunities of service, teaching and education in our area.
2. A recommendation was made and approved to appoint a Counseling Ministry Study Committee to report on the counseling ministry needs in the Association, this report to be made at the annual meeting.
3. In addition to calling attention to the Promise Keepers rally and the New York Mission trip, the Evangelism Committee also encouraged participation in the Billy Graham Crusade to be held in Charlotte. A report was also made on the preliminary work being done to bring about an active response to the South Africa partnership effort to be made later in the year. Missionaries to South Africa who are currently on furlough, Roger and Rose Ann Childres, spoke at the meeting and expressed gratitude for the efforts being made on behalf of the South Africa partnership.

July 22 at Plains View:

1. A report was given on the South Africa partnership, with Glenn Walker, the coordinator, requesting early response to the need for people to go. Glenn Walker will lead the team going in October 1996 and Leland Kerr will lead another team expected to be ready in the Spring of 1997. This partnership is for a five year period of time. There will be ample opportunity given over this five year period for those who wish to participate in this mission endeavor.
2. As directed in the April meeting, members of the Missionary-in-Residence Committee were recommended and approved. This committee will now be working with Gardner-Webb University and the churches who furnish missionary homes to assure that a good plan is in effect at all times to keep this program active.
3. It was reported that we are enjoying new beginnings in our Association (a) desire of people to be involved in hands-on missions and the Association providing ways for this involvement; (b) an increase in the sense of cooperation and unity in our churches; (c) the growing importance of associational missions being a vital entity with as much importance as the cooperative program; and (d) growing need for a counseling ministry. Encouragement was given for churches to respond to these new needs with new ministries.

The scriptures tell us TO PRAY, TO WORK, TO GIVE, TO LIVE IN FAITH - Your Association has expected ALL of these actions from you. We have not been disappointed! We are grateful to be a part of such a wonderful fellowship.

RECOMMENDATION

From Executive Committee and Missions Committee

The Executive Committee and the Missions Committee recommends that the Association establish The Kings Mountain Baptist Association Missions Foundation. This fund will enable individuals, regardless of their age or resource level, the opportunity to continue supporting Christian causes during and after their lifetime. It will provide a fund for churches to give over and above their regular associational giving for specific missions and ministry projects related to our area of work. This fund will also prepare us for the anticipated reduction of Home Mission Board funding to North Carolina and ultimately to our Association. This fund will support causes that include, but not limited to:

National and International Mission Partnerships and Projects

New Work New Starts

Missionary-in-Residence Housing

Short-term emergency assistance for existing churches

Church and Community Ministries projects

The Executive Committee and the Missions Committee further recommends that a Committee Board be elected to be responsible for the development of details of organization with the advice of the Finance Committee. This Committee Board will also review needs and requests and recommend to the Missions Committee the dispersal needs. The Missions Committee will then bring the needs requests to the Executive Committee for approval.

SUNDAY SCHOOL REPORT

The natural tendency after a major undertaking is to slow down a bit. This is what took place in our association this past year in the area of Sunday School. After a huge success during CPR the following year, our response to the various opportunities of Sunday School training was wonderful but not on the scale of the previous year. However, for those who did take time out to receive some training this year they were truly blessed by outstanding leaders to assist them in their roles as a Sunday School leader.

During the spring of this year our theme was Becoming a PRO (Preparing to Reach and Organize). The emphasis was on how we can better carry out the main focus of Sunday School - outreach. Over eighty people were present at either Polkville on April 25 or at Zoar on April 30 to receive ideas on how to better equip themselves for Sunday School evangelism.

The time of spring also served as a backdrop to Vacation Bible School training. The VBS theme this year for many of our churches in the association was Go for the Gold which worked well with the Olympic spirit this summer. An early bird conference to overview the material was offered at the associational office for VBS directors. Two training events for VBS workers were given at Patterson Springs and Poplar Springs.

At the end of the summer months a Sunday School Rally geared toward large churches was held at First, Kings Mountain on August 26. The special guest speaker was Dr. Harry Piland, former Sunday School Board Division Director in Nashville, Tennessee. Over eighty people responded to the call of the rally by receiving key training as they began a new year in Sunday School. On September 12 a Sunday School Rally geared toward the smaller church was held at Dover. The special guest speaker there was Barry Campbell from the Sunday School Board in Nashville who is gifted in understanding the significant role that small churches play in the life of our Southern Baptist family. Nearly sixty people were present for this specialized training in their church.

A word of thanks goes out to those who planned and coordinated all the details of these Sunday School events. A personal word of gratitude on my behalf goes out to the pastors and church leaders where these events mentioned above were held. Taking time out to assist this vital role of training for Sunday School leaders was very much appreciated. I would like to commend your ASSIS Team for the ways that they were of service for these events or for personal consultations with churches in our association. We have one of the best teams in the state! I would be remiss if I did not include a special thank you to our Church Development Director, Bonnie Doughtie. We are very fortunate to have her expertise and resources working for us in our association. Her time and effort on behalf of these Sunday School activities was noted and appreciated by everyone. Thanks to all for giving of yourself in order to advance the Kingdom of God through Sunday School. May your tribe increase!

Steve Zimmerman, Sunday School Director

DISCIPLESHIP TRAINING REPORT

Discipleship should be a major emphasis in the life of the church. In the "Great Commission" (Matthew 28:16-20) Jesus gives us, His church, not only the command to "go" but also to "make disciples." Jesus gave this command because He knew that evangelism and discipleship go hand-in-hand. When a person is won to Christ, we must not simply help that person to experience baptism and church membership. Our responsibility to that new believer has really only begun. We must help him to learn more about his new found faith and begin the process of Christian growth. We also have an obligation as a church to continue to challenge and equip all believers to consistently grow in their faith. We have many resources at our disposal to help us in the task of discipleship. If I can help you discover materials or establish a Discipleship Training Program in your church, please do not hesitate to call.

Our Children and Youth Bible Drill was held on Sunday, March 24, 1996 at Putnam Memorial Baptist Church. We had thirteen (13) churches participating with sixty-nine (69) children and two (2) youth involved. I appreciate Creola Pearson and Carolyn Gordon for their excellent work in coordinating this event.

Glenn Walker, Discipleship Training supporter

WMU REPORT

This has been a very exciting year for WMU as we experienced major organizational changes. Kings Mountain Baptist Association women and girls were challenged to "Risk the Journey." We rose to that challenge and completed a very successful year. Our major change was to make WMU work for all of us and structure our organizations so they would meet the needs of our individual churches.

Women on Mission, under the leadership of the Associational Churchwide Missions Consultant, coordinated "Project Help: AIDS" and all organizations participated in providing supplies and money for AIDS patients in Cleveland County. The Acteens Activators again participated in the New York Mission Trip and the banquet for the International Students and MK's at Gardner-Webb University was sponsored by the GA's. A fall festival was held for all Mission Friends and was very successful.

New organizations were established in several churches and we are looking forward to continued growth in WMU.

Respectfully submitted,
Priscilla Wray, WMU director

MUSIC MINISTRY REPORT

This has been a truly exciting year for music ministry in Kings Mountain Baptist Association! A good number of Ministers of Music in the association meet on a monthly basis to plan and organize events. Here are some highlights of the past year:

Choral Clinic: The annual clinic was held on March 4, 1996 at Bethel Baptist Church. David Thomas formally from First Baptist in Asheboro was the clinician. The choice of music was "Monuments of Praise" by Joe Parks. Seventeen churches totaling 151 were in attendance.

Senior Adult Music Festival: This is a new ministry and was highly successful! It was held at Westview Baptist Church and Mike McGee from Elizabeth was the clinician. The program included rehearsals, fellowship and then a time of worship. Senior adult choirs from Boiling Springs and Elizabeth performed. Over 220 senior adults from ten churches participated.

Association Youth Choir: This is the fifth year that youth in our community have come together to present a musical. Over 150 youth participated in the two performances of "God is in Control." The musical was presented at Elizabeth and Dover churches and then several locations in Rochester, New York.

We are excited about two new ministries that will be provided next year:

Children's Choir Camp - summer 1997

KMBA 5th Sunday Singing - June 29, 1997

Other Dates for 1997:

Choral Clinic - February 18, 1997

Senior Adult Music Festival - April 14, 1997

Youth Musical - May 11-12, 1997

HISTORIANS REPORT

As the new Kings Mountain Baptist Association historian, I pledge with the help of the History Committee to continue the effort to preserve and keep before the Association some of the history of this great Association. Dr. Wyan Washburn has set a wonderful example by approaching the history of the Association in an enthusiastic and energetic manner.

On the front of the Archives Building in Washington, D.C., are the words, "The past is prologue." This Association has a past filled with stories of dedicated Christian men and women founding churches and in 1851 founding the Kings Mountain Association. The churches that formed this new association had previously belonged to the Broad River Association. The size of the Broad River Association was so large that representatives from the churches had difficulty getting to the associational meetings.

In 1851, thirteen (13) charter churches met and formed a constitution for the new association. According to the history of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association published in 1951, the constitution stated, "We the united Baptist churches of Jesus Christ located in North and South Carolina have obtained letters of dismission from the Broad River Association and having all been baptized upon a profession of faith in Christ are desirous of reciprocal union." These original churches were Buffalo, Sandy Run, Zion, Zoar, Double Springs, Bethel, Boiling Springs, Mount Sinai, New Bethel, Mt. Pleasant, Broad River, Beaver Dam, and Pleasant Hill. The number of churches and the individual churches themselves tended to grow slowly at first, but today there are 78 churches and one mission in the Kings Mountain Baptist Association.

The people of the Kings Mountain Association very early developed an interest in high school education and later an interest in college level education. At the 1900 Kings Mountain Associational meeting at Double Springs Church, the Correspondence Committee pled for Baptists to give our children Christian education. They asked, "Whom shall we leave here to advocate and defend our faith, the principles we hold so dear, as against attacks of those who reject them, if we fail to teach our children."

The Kings Mountain and Sandy Run Baptist Associations founded Boiling Springs High School in 1905, and the school opened its doors to students in 1907. In 1928, the school became Boiling Springs Junior College. In 1942, the school was named Gardner-Webb Junior College in honor of Governor O. Max Gardner, his wife Fay Webb Gardner, and their families. In 1971, Gardner-Webb became a four year college. Under the presidency of Dr. Christopher White, the school assumed the status of university on January 1, 1993.

I have written a history of Gardner-Webb from 1907-1997 which will be published in 1997 and will contain much history of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association as it relates to Gardner-Webb.

With the assistance of the Associational History Committee, the history committees of local churches, and the leaders of the Association, it is hoped that the history of the Association and its churches can be updated and preserved.

Lansford Jolley, associational historian

EVANGELISM COMMITTEE REPORT

Our major event of the year, our Evangelism Rally was held in January. This year's event was hosted by Eastside Baptist Church in Shelby. The Martins blessed us with their music. J. Edwin Bullock, Evangelism Development Director of our Baptist State Convention conducted our Ministers Conference and was also our rally speaker. Several of our lay people gave testimonies of different ministries in their churches. Our next rally will be held January 27, 1997. The location will be announced at a later date. The Martins have already been secured to bless us once again with their music.

The rest of the year was spent working with the Baptist State Convention with Reaching the Cities, Promise Keepers, and The Billy Graham Crusade.

Reaching the Cities is concerned with reaching everyone in North Carolina with the Gospel of Jesus Christ by the year 2000.

Promise Keepers held a conference in North Carolina for the first time. In June over 70,000 men met at Charlotte Motor Speedway. Over 4,000 made decisions for the Lord. Plans are underway for another conference at Charlotte Motor Speedway with a probable date of April 1997.

The Carolinas Billy Graham Crusade was held in Charlotte September 26-29. Over 300,000 people attended. Over 20,000 decisions were made for Jesus.

At all the events held this year many volunteers were needed. Once again the pastors and members of Kings Mountain Baptist Association responded. Many of the leaders, supervisors and counselors were from our association. These events could not have been held without you. Thank each of you from Promise Keepers and The Billy Graham Association.

MEMORIALS COMMITTEE REPORT

Kings Mountain Association has had many spiritual giants to lead us to the height of God's love. The ages have given us men and women who led in our worship and our education services. We, also, have found that they lived for our Lord, not just one day a week but on every occasion of circumstances. If the times were bad or good they set their eyes and their hearts toward the Master. The superior faith of our fathers remains amazing. That very faith has made our journey better, blessed, and joyful.

Today, we express to God our thanksgiving and praise for those who have gone before us. Since we last met, many of those with their wonderful Christian love have gained the highest goal of all life. They have bowed at the feet of Jesus in eternal praise. It is good to know that our promise to see Jesus comes in so many different ways. We are not left alone, but the Holy Spirit now assures us that one day we will see these saint again. With Paul we can say, "I thank my God always when I remember you..." (Philippians 1:3).

As we remember today, may we re-affirm our belief in immortality. "It is the end of life for which the first was made." Life does not end at the grave! This is the great affirmation of our faith! Death is defeated! Death is closing the door to earth and opening the door to Heaven.

Blessed are those who die in the LORD. "When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with Him in glory" (Colossians 3:4).

Dan W. Silver, chairman

CHRISTIAN LIFE COMMITTEE

The Christian Life Committee strives to alert the churches of the Association to the problems and concerns of our twentieth century and how the church can make a difference in the name of Jesus Christ.

Our committee was involved in two areas of concerns this year. We encouraged our churches to take part in the National TV Turn Off Week April 24-30. The family of today has lost much of its closeness because of the pervasive influence of television.

The committee took part in the National Day of Prayer on Thursday, May 2nd. Approximately 250 people met in various city halls across the county for prayer from 12:20 to 12:40 p.m. on that day. The theme for the day of prayer was to lift up our nation and turn it back to God.

May the church continually desire to impact the world with the message of Christ and His commands.

James B. Richardson, chairman

MISSIONS COMMITTEE REPORT

The Missions Committee of Kings Mountain Baptist Association has had the joy of experiencing and hearing first hand the way that our Lord is working in and through the lives of our churches. The Missions Committee remains committed to leading our Association to be a Great Commission Association.

The focus of the Missions Committee has changed to more fully reflect our purpose. In the past the Missions Committee had duplicated some of the work of the Executive Committee. The focus now is solely on the challenges of missions and to seek ways to minister in the opportunities that God has called each of us.

Cleveland County is experiencing tremendous growth. In order to reach our growing area for Christ, our committee is seeking ways to strengthen existing churches as well as encourage and assist new church starts. It is a blessing to see the growth and enthusiasm in the Christopher Road Baptist Hispanic Mission. The Lord is doing a great work in this ministry and they need our support and prayers.

The excitement continues both at home and abroad. The Kings Mountain Baptist Association has answered the call to go into all the world. Your involvement in the partnerships in Rochester, New York and South Africa are vital to the work of God in these areas. In our churches, we are so blessed. We have so much to share with others. God is using us as channels of blessing in ways that only in eternity will we know the full extent. The channels of blessing do not stop in New York and South Africa, they then are released on our own churches again. All WIN when we answer the call to "GO."

Your Missions Committee now has a new sub-committee. The Missionary-in-Residence program has continued to grow and be a great blessing to our Association and its people. The Missionary-in-Residence Committee was established to work directly with the Missionary-in-Residence program in order for this program to be more effective and to meet the needs of the missionaries and their families. This committee has been appointed and is working diligently.

The Missions Committee does not do any of this work alone. You have answered the call to "GO." Individuals and churches have said that there are no limits and boundaries to sharing the Good News of Jesus Christ. May we continue to do more than hear reports like this, may we answer the call!

Respectfully submitted,
Keith Dixon, chairman

STUDENT MINISTRY COMMITTEE REPORT

During the past year our Student Committee has been hard at work continuing to implement a Baptist Student Union group at Cleveland Community College. We continue to seek the Lord's leadership in finding a Volunteer Student Director to coordinate activities and programs for this new BSU. We covet your prayers in this ongoing task of starting this new program.

We continue to support the Gardner-Webb University campus ministries. This association helps provide funds for student events that include conferences, retreats, conventions, and special programs. The committee works closely with the Campus Minister in distributing these funds.

We cannot encourage every church enough to be involved in Student Ministries. Churches can be involved at orientation at Gardner-Webb and Cleveland Community College. Our students need to know we care.

Respectfully submitted,
Tom Beam, chairman

YOUTH MINISTRY REPORT

This past year has been a bit unusual, none-the-less exciting for youth ministry in the Kings Mountain Baptist Association. Our goal this year has been to provide youth events that would benefit churches of all sizes while at the same time evaluating what we have been doing in hopes of making what we will be doing even better.

In January a ski retreat was planned and over 200 signed up and paid deposits. A music leader and Bible study leader were lined up and ready to go. The theme: Whiter Than Snow. The only problem was the couple inches of ice and freezing rain that fell the night before preventing us from getting to the mountains. So, mark your calendars for January 31 - February 1, 1997 -- same event, same leaders, same theme, different weather.

In March we held our sixth annual crusade, Rescue '96. The program was top-notch, possibly the best ever, while attendance was possibly the lowest ever (tornadoes in the area were partially to blame). The good news (actually the GREAT news) is that over 30 decisions were recorded, including nine who trusted Jesus as Lord and Savior.

Soon after Rescue, the committee sent out an evaluation form to all church youth workers. The response has prompted us to redirect our evangelism efforts, combining them with other events for bigger impact. Look for an exciting event to be held in September that will include an afternoon of fun at the fairgrounds, a cookout and then an evangelistic rally with emphasis on taking a stand for Christ on campus.

The response to the evaluation also resulted in a quarterly meeting of ALL youth workers -- paid, volunteer, part-time and full-time. Two such meetings have already taken place. They have provided times of discussion and support and planning. The next Youth Ministers' Support meeting will be held in January.

This committee continues to look for ideas and is genuinely concerned with uniting the youth of our association through a variety of activities. Please contact us if you have suggestions or questions or need support for your local church ministry to teenagers.

BRIEF HISTORY OF THE KINGS MOUNTAIN BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

On November 7, 1851 the following churches from the Broad River Baptist Association met at Double Springs Baptist Church for the purpose of organizing a new association: Beaver Dam, Bethel, Boiling Springs, Broad River, Buffalo, Double Springs, Mt. Pleasant, Mt. Sinai, New Bethel, Pleasant Hill, Sandy Run, Zion, and Zoar.

The need for a new association resulted from geographical conditions. The boundary of the Broad River Association was so extensive that delegates were unable to attend the annual sessions due to swollen rivers and streams.

The name "Kings Mountain Association" was chosen because its boundary included the Kings Mountain battleground, a monument to be remembered by every patriot and lover of religious liberty.

In 1903, the association appointed a committee to establish and endow a denomination high school. In 1905, Boiling Springs was chosen as the most suitable site by a 15-member Board of Trustees. The Sandy Run Association was invited to join the Kings Mountain Association in establishing the school. In 1906, efforts and plans were begun to raise money for the school and in 1907, the first building was erected. The school opened on October 1, 1907 with 135 students. The first principal was Professor J.D. Huggins. The school later became known as Gardner-Webb College.

Directors of Missions who have served the association are:

Lewis E. Ludlum	1946-50
Tom W. Bray	1950-59
C.O. Greene	1959-73
Cline W. Borders	1973-91
Leland A. Kerr	1992-present

Interim Directors of Missions who have served are:

W.V. Tarlton	August 1, 1973 to October 31, 1973
Sam Snyder	May 1, 1991 to January 24, 1992

During the tenures of Rev. Ludlum and Rev. Bray, the association occupied an office in the First Baptist Church, Shelby. In 1949, the association voted to build a missionary home on Buffalo Street for the associational missionary. In 1959, the association voted that the missionary home be turned into an office building to provide space for the associational missionary, secretary, clerk treasurer and to provide conference space for meetings. The home was sold in 1965 and the association rented office space in Shelby.

In April 1978, the association called Rev. Bob Davis as Church and Community Ministries Director. Rev. Davis served until August 1989 when he went on medical leave. Rev. Sam Snyder served as interim CCM Director from October 23, 1989 to September 30, 1990. In October 1990, the association called Rev. Charles Reed as the current CCM Director. In July 1994, the association called Rev. Bonnie Doughtie as their first Church Development Director.

Additional staff and growing ministries led the association to build an associational complex on Wyke Road in Shelby. In 1981 a dedication service and open house was held.

At the 1996 annual meeting messengers voted to change the director of missions job title to executive director and voted for the association to incorporate.

Currently the association is made up of 78 member churches and one mission with a total church membership of 29,074. This total does not include four non-reporting churches.
